I am origionally from Swansea, SC. I currently work for General Motors in Michigan and don't get back to SC enough to do much research. It is by mail (not much) and a day or two when I get to SC on vacation. The names I an trying to trace include:

STABLER

I can document my line back to George Lewis Stabler (b. abt 1790, d. 23 Mar 1859). His wife was Mary but I do not have her maiden name. I have not been able to document George Lewis Stabler's parents. It is likely that his father was a son of Gottlieb Stabler, the origional Stabler immigrant in SC. Gottlieb's son, John George Stabler is indicated as my ancestor by some poorly documented records, but I am still digging for proof. If I can link back to Gottlieb Stabler, I will be tied to the ZIEGLER family by his wife, Anna Barbara Ziegler.

SAYLOR

I have reasonable good records on the Saylor's back to Jacob Saylor I (b. abt 1730, d. aft 1779) who immigrated from Weidenstentturn, Germany via Switzerland in 1747. Would like additional information on this family. Most of the research was done by someone else.

CRIM, JUMPER

Greatgrandmother Stabler was Rachel Crim. Her parents were David Crim (b. about 1806) and Marjorie Jumper (b. abt 1820). I have not been able to trace either of these family lines yet.

WISE, FERTICK

My gg-grandfather, Godfrey Vastine Stabler married Mary Margret Wise (b. 29 Sep 1833, d. 29 Jan 1900). Her parents were John Wise (b abt 1800) and Mary Fertick (b. abt 1810). Both family lines need work.

All of these names are in the early Orangeburg records. I am also tracing my mother's line which includes the following, some from the Northern part of the Orangeburt district, now Lexington County:

ALTMAN/AULTMAN, BUSBY

I am back to Solomon Altman (b. abt 1783, d. aft 1850)) and his wife Elizabeth Busby Gantt (b. abt 1790, d. aft 1850). Possible son of John Altman but more research needed. No work on the Busby line.

RISTER, HAUGABUCK

Christian Rister (b. abt 1775, d. aft 1850) and his wife Sarah Haugabook (or other spelling) (b. abt 1782, d. aft 1850) are in my mother's line and I need more information in this area. Limited Rister information.

KING

Rachel E. King (b. abt 1831, d. Dec 1892) m. John Adam Rister (son of Christen Rister). Her parents have not been identified.

I am searching for information on my father's family and hope that you may be able to help--my father, Guy Thurston Hutto, July 7, 1923-March 13, 1985) was born around Bamberg or Denmark most probably. His mother Mary Hutto lived from Dec 18, 1885-Dec 28, 1934. She was probably not married. She lived with her mother--Ann Rebecca Hutto, 1845-1925, and several of her adult siblings. Both Mary and Ann Rebecca are buried at Two Mile Swamp Baptst Church near Orangeburg. There seem to be no church records available due to a fire since they were buried there. Several of the Hutto families around Bamberg or Orangeburg are my cousins but they know little of our ancestry. We have no other info on the Hutto line of our family beyond these two women and would be most excited to make a connection into the research that we have recently received that was written by A. Dickson Hutto (1923-1981). -

Thank you for any help you may be able to give us.-

Gene,

Ref my msg to Hutto researchers. I hope that our fellow researchers realize that Lexington Co was once the north part of Orangeburg Co.

Another subject:

I also find in the VOL 2 that I ordered a total of 48 Koon listings. Also Elizabeth M Coon and Elizabeth Coon.

Could these be the Coon that many of our members are researching??

It appears that I am shilling for the opposition. Not so. I think that any info we can gather no matter what the source is info to be shared. I think that both organizations are essential to any serious North Orangeburg researcher.

Fred and Jim,

The Hutto listings should hit you right in the middle!! Apparently our families all started in the North Part of Orangeburg Co which became Lexington Co in 1804. Good chance that it could hit me as well because the Lydia (which I misspelled Ludia in the listing) could be the Lydia that I have been looking for a long time.

Jonnie,

The followin info is on an Elizabeth Hutto in my database, but I am not sure if this is the one that you are looking for. The Elizabeth that is in my database died young. Her parents were John William Hutto, b. cir 1809 in Barnwell near Aiken, and Mary Price, b. 11-15-1819.

This is some of what I know about Elizabeth's lineage:

In the book, "Isaac (Otto) Hutto, From the German Rhine to Edisto in Carolina", by Edgar Hutto, there is a mention of John William in the section that tells of the following Alabama Huttos:

"Ora Lee Hutto, Mrs. J.L. Weed) of Arifton, Alabama has contributed the following information about her family and some of the other Hutto families in Alabama. Her great grandfather Jacob Hutto, came to Henry county, Alabama, from Barnwell County South Carolina. The date of his birth and death is not known, or where he is buried. His first wife was Louise Oliver.

Jacob and Louise Oliver Hutto, had one daughter and three sons. Daughter Lonsydia. Sons Samuel, David and John William. John William Hutto was Ora Lee Hutto Weeds great grandfather. Jacob Hutto, second wife was Anna Horne.

She died at the age of 101. Jacob and Anna Horne Hutto, had one son George, and one daughter Jane or Jence. It is said that Jacob Hutto had two brothers, Solomon and Ephram. John William Hutto was born about 1809 in Barnwell County, South Carolina and died March 16, 1891, in Henry County, Alabama. John William Hutto, married Mary Price. She was known as aunt "Polly", she was the daughter of Whitmore Price and Ann Palmer. Born Nov. 15, 1819. Birthplace not known. Died January 7, 1894. In Henry County, Alabama John William Hutto and his wife are buried in the old Hutto cemetery on, or near the farm. Some five or six miles from Abbeville, Alabama, John William and Mary Price Hutto, had nine children. Four daughters and five sons.. Daughters, SARAH, Mary, ELIZABETH (died young), Cinderella Phoebe, and Donie. Sons, John Thomas, Joseph Harman, John Franklin, Jude, Solomon, and Jack. I am not sure what your point is, or what information you are saying is similar. At this time there are 10 Solomon Huttos in my database as well as

2 Soloman Huttos. I was under the opinion that you were requesting information about the Solomon Hutto that married Martha Watson 4 Feb 1825

in Henry County, AL and then had the children that you listed. It is possible that you might find the information that you are seeking in Deed

Book C, Pg 414 - of Henry County, AL.

Which Solomon are you asking about being George's son or brother, or maybe his nephew? No, Ann Hill and Anna Horne are not the same person. If you are asking who the father was of the Jacob Hutto that married Anna Horne, would say that it has been suggested that it was Charles Hutto. I have no

I

further information and no proof.

Dear HUTTO researchers,

Now that my ad in Everton's Genealogical Helper has been published several weeks ago with an inquiry that mentions the Hutto surname, my mail box is loaded with Hutto inquiries as I have promised for many months. So far I have received a total of 1 whole inquiry on the Hutto surname. Boy are folks beating down my door to correspond with me. Today I received a letter from a lady that appears to be a descendant of SOLOMON HUTTO. This is some of the info from the family group sheet in the letter: SOLOMON HUTTO b. 20 Apr. 1805, Orangeburg, d. 19 Sep. 1870. SOLOMON married MARTHA WATSON, b. 5 Feb. 1806, d. 26 Feb. 1878. It appears that most of these Huttos ended up in Texas. Do any of y'all know who the ancestors of Solomon were? Do they go back to Isaac? I scanned the pamphlet by Edgar Hutto, but did not see Solomon's name. Any help would be appreciated.

Solomon Hutto is one of 6 children of George HUTTO (1774-1847) and Ann HILL. (George also had a son, which he acknowledged, by Kate BROWN...
women that he had not wed.) To my knowledge, George's parentage is not known at this time. All of Solomon's children were born in AL. He had grandchildren born in AL, TX, and LA.

I agree with Jim that dates would be very helpful in narrowing down
the search for Sharon's John Hutto. My database contains 107 Hutto ancestors named John Hutto. Rather than list them all here, I will mention two that were known to be in Georgia.

John Hutto b. abt 1818 that married Sarah Spell appears in the US Census
for Appling County, GA during the years 1850, 1860, and 1870. He had a son,
John Hutto b. abt 1845 that married Caroline Mobley. (He also appeared in the US Census for Appling County, GA during the years 1850, 1860, 1870, and 1880.)

Then I must disagree with Jim about John Henry Hutto b. 26 May, 1753 (son of Charles Hutto). While the proof has yet to be located, and despite some DAR applications and what was published in "Pioneers of Wiregrass Georgia", the evidence leans toward this John Henry Hutto b. 26 May, 1753 (son of Charles Hutto) as being the Henry Hutto that moved to Georgia and dyed there after 1833. The Henry Hutto that married Ann Zorn appears to have been the son of Peter Hutto and was christened on 25 Dec 1752. He later died 24 Oct 1817 while still in South Carolina.

Hello Helpers,
Would like to find the following:

James MIMS b. 1799 SC (I think Edgefield Dist.) m. Mary O'STEEN in FL. They are listed on the 1850 Hamilton Co., FL census. James may have had at least two sisters, Eliza & Mary. On the 1850 Gadsden FL census is another James MIMS, m. SC, Eugenia Olivia Rumph, however all their children were born in SC. Is it possible the two James were cousins? Who were the former James parents?

William TOMLINSON b. bef 1740 SC m. ???; Children ???
It is believed William furnished supplies to the Rev. Army. His son, John (RS) served in the SC Militia, and other children may have been Charity, Mary & Silvey. Soon after the war, the family moved to Bulloch Co., GA.

James TOUCH(S)TON(E) b. 1794 Barnwell Dist., SC, m. Rebecca Hutto, and migrated to GA about 1830. I have this family data & will share. Would like to find James parents & siblings.

I look forward to sharing my 20,000 + name database (some overlaps) with anyone who needs it.

Some of my Surnames are:

Now, many Orangeburgers moved down to Barnwell Co for some reason. Even many who moved to other states first moved down to Barnwell Co. Of course Barnwell Co was originally a part of Orangeburg Co so some peoples did not move. They just later show up in Barnwell as if they left Orangeburg.

Should any of you desire a check to see if any of your clan left a will in Barnwell Co just post a note and I will check it out for you.

I doubt seriously that the Dr. Otto that delivered your GrandFather in 1909 is still alive. If you are asking if it was likely that there could have been a Dr. Otto I would have to say yes. Consulting my residential phone disc, I found 8821 listings for Otto and 2938 listings for Hutto. We know that some of the Huttos were doctors, so it seems nearly 3 times more likely that there would also be Ottos that were doctors.

Parden my while I beat my drum one more time.

It is entirely possible that the name Hutto was originally Otto before settling in Orangeburg, all we are lacking is proof! (Gene, notice how I slipped the word Orangeburg in to simulate staying on topic. <grin>) While Otto is a good German name, there are other possible candidates. Let me quote in part from the so called Historical Research Center. "The origins of the German surname Hutto are not clear... HUT, HUTT, HUTTER, and HUODT can be found in documents dating back to the twelfth century. One Wilhelm HUDERE was a resident of Koeln (Cologne) in the year 1135. Hainrich der HUOTTER was residing in Langenenslingen, near Sigmaringen as documents for the year 1258 indicate. One Albrecht der HUDT was a judge in Rottenburg on the Neckar river in the year 1309. One Lienhard HUTTER was ennobled in the year 1530 by King Darl D." I have also found families in this country with

Hutto Researchers,

Fred Hutto has pointed out a correction to a previous e-mail of mine.
I recently posted to the group referring to the book
>From the book "In Memory of James Fletcher Hutto, Orangeburg County Public
Servant, 1875 -- 1957":

In the event that you are not aware, the actual title of the book is
"ISAAC (OTTO) HUTTO, From the German Rhine To The Edisto in Carolina", by Edgar
Hutto, 1962 (47 pages)

Fred has also helped me to find a few of my Hutto ancestors:

Supervisor's District 40
Enumeration District 72
Page 278
Dwelling 49
Family 53
Hutto, James 61 year old head of household born July 1838 in SC
Virginia 57 year old wife born August 1842 in GA
Susie 22 year old daughter born June 1877 in GA
Jim 17 year old son born July 1882 in GA
Florence 12 year old daughter born December 1887 in GA

James parents were both from SC Virginia's parents were both from GA they were married for 37 years Virginia had 14 children, 5 of which were still alive at the time of the

I have also found them in the 1880 Richmond, GA census enum. 101, pg.

Jim,

Thank you very much for reminding me of Patricia J. Dye. I was also corresponding with her at about the time of those messages. I sent 80+ pages of information to her and she was going to send some information and copies of some pictures to me. That was in early March, and thanks to your post I am going to send off a reminder to her. From my e-mail correspondence with her I tend to doubt whether we will find anything on the parentage of the George Solomon Hutto in question, but was still hoping for her information. Apparently her Aunt Maude HUTTO Hand (daughter of a marriage between two different Hutto lines) had *research* qualifying her to membership in the DAR. This, of course, does not imply that it is through a Hutto line. It would be nice though, to know for sure.

A funeral put me in Douglas, Georgia Friday. Being halfway to Miller Swamp in South Carolina I decided to go the rest of the way even though I could stay only a few hours. I found Miller Swamp and drove around it and over it. Here is the news:

Attn.: Hutto researchers. Brad Hutto is running for State Senate from District 40. His campaign signs are on every road leading to Miller Swamp.

Attn.: Mark James I have found two spellings for what seems to be the same family. One is spelled Halford and the other Alford. A tombstone in the Miller Swamp Church Cemetery reads, "Jethero Halford Died Jan. 7, 1915 Age 102 yrs Another link is broken In our household band But a chain is forming In a better land"

In the Miller Swamp Church Cemetery I found the surname of my ancestors (Williams & Myers) on two plots. These plots were close together and contained some very old unmarked graves. I feel certain I am in the right place and just need to do some clever work to succeed in finding the name of the father of my ancestor John M. Williams. I know the names of John M. Williams' wife, his children's names and the names of his wife's parents. The identity of his father still eludes me.

Thanks for the help in getting this far.

Hi Jim,

I received mine in the mail yesterday. Thank you. For now it will just go into my Williams file to wait for the day that I can afford some time for that line. What little time I can find these days I spend on the Hutto descendents. Aside from continuing to receive information on more recent Hutto generations to add to my database, I am attempting to go through the stuff that I have collected over the years again. It is quite fun to find a piece of information, that you have had for years, that you can now see where to fit into the puzzle.

I also have on my desk, waiting to be answered, a folder of information with a letter from Nelda Hutto Martin. Ruth Anne Hutto, another Hutto researcher, has been prompting her to write to me since before you wrote to her on behalf of the group. The only "new" information that is contained in what she sent to me is in the letter where she states "Please note on the ancestry chart that I have marked out George Hutto, Sr. as the father of George Solomon. That had been conjecture on my part; however, I am convinced that Mr. McAuley's information is probably more accurate although I have not found any proof.". She went on to say that she was going to see Ruth Ann Hutto over the weekend and looks forward to talking genealogy with her.

I also have on my desk, waiting to be answered, a letter from Ruth Anne Hutto which states in part "Nelda came down for the Labor Day Week-end...

She is a paralegal secretary to a Lawyer, and I don't think that she has done one hour of research in the Court House. When we were in Henry Co.

Ala. she did not even know what the Probate records were, and how to read them. I asked her how she got all of her Hutto records....and she said that they were all sent to her by other researchers."

Bottom line - No viable clues to indicate the parentage of George Soloman

Larry,

Let me welcome you to the Orangeburg group as I was so warmly welcomed about a week ago. I'm sure you will find everyone to be very helpful. I've been doing research about three years now and really feel like I'm just getting the hang of it.

I believe there were a good many HUTTOs in Henry Co., AL where my WARD's, MAJORS, and KIRKLAND's are from.

Good luck.

Hi Larry,

I am maintaining a database of information on all of the Huttos
that I can get any scraps of information about.

I notice that you say that you are only proven up to Basel Geter
HUTTO, but that your aunt and others have taken your CREECH line on back...
I imagine that must mean that you are comfortable with your HUTTO line, at least as far back as Gideon HUTTO (married Elizabeth "Eliza" CREECH).

It is Gideon HUTTOs parentage that I am not yet comfortable with. I understand that the late Edna Manning shows the line as you do, but errors...<snip>...my Great, great, grandfather, Gideon Hutto. A.S.

Salley, the Orangeburg Clerk of Court, State Archivist, friend and neighbor of the Huttos, (also related to the Hutto family through marriage, and his in-laws were the McMichael) traced our history in the 1950's. <end quote>

QUESTION TO THE GROUP: Is that a typo, or was A.S Salley still alive in the 1950's?

Anyway she lists the lineage as:

Isaac HUTTO (b. 1695)
Peter HUTTO (b. abt 1720) [I also have his b. abt 1726, FH]
Henry Hutto (b. 1752) m. Ann ZORN
Nicholas W. Hutto (b. 1793) m. Susannah GETER
Gideon HUTTO (b. 1827) m. Elizabeth CREECH

Like your Aunt, she also has the CREECH line back to the immigrant Richard, and his wife Frances BEALE.

If you do not mind sharing your information Larry, I would appreciate your information on the descendents of Basel Geter HUTTO. I could send a blank disk and a disk mailer to you if you would be willing to copy a GedCom of that portion of your file for me. By the way, Manning shows his name as Bassel and/or Bazzel (and called Bass). Do you know which is correct?

To GENE JEFFRIES: The above referenced Merlene HUTTO Byers also adamantly insists that the Hutto name was originally OTTO, and that Isaac and his family were born in Sobernheim, Germany. She cites no documentation backing up the claims.

Larry,

Welcome to the list. Lots of HUTTO researchers in the group that know that lineage like the back of their hand. My primary lineage is BLACKSTONE, but I do study some of the Hutto lineage since my Great Grandfather James Coleman Blackstone Married Susan Ann Hutto. This is some info about the two:

I am particularly interested in finding my ggf, the father of James Coleman BLACKSTONE. This is what I know about James COLEMAN Blackstone.
b. ca 1863
d. 10 Mar 1933 in Augusta, GA (Richmond County)
According to my grandfather, James Coleman had 5 brothers and 2 sisters, and he spoke the Creek or Cherokee Indian language.

James Coleman md. Susan Ann HUTTO in Augusta, GA ca 1903. Susan was born 1873, d. July 05, 1915, in Augusta, GA. Her family is from SC. She was confined with cancer of the breast before she died at approximately age 33.

Tied one end of a rope to the bed and the other end to Papa's (J.O. Blackstone Sr.) arm to keep him from running around in the neighborhood and getting into trouble. She worked in the King Textile mill in Augusta and every morning she put Papa ( J.O. Sr). in the nursery for the textile worker's children. The picture we have is of her. She was known as a good woman, but also as a a fighter. According to J.O. Blackstone Sr., she punched his nursery school teacher because she hit him. Her death is recorded in the Bible of James Coleman Blackstone. Susan Ann's parents were Jim and Virginia Hutto. I am not sure who their parents were

Do James Coleman and Susan Ann show up in any of your reserach?

Any help would be appreciated. Do you have any questions for the group about your HUTTO lineage? Lots of brainpower on this list.

Mr. Jeffries,

Thanks for the kind words welcoming me into the List. I'm 36 years old, married, have 2 beautiful daughters, and employed as an information analyst (computers) at the Savannah River Site. I'm a member of the Aiken-Barnwell Gene. Soc. and serve as acting Journal editor. My HUTTO line seems to be as follows:

Isaac HUTTO (b. ca. 1695)
Peter (b. 1727)
Isaac (b. 1749)
John (b. 1790)
Gideon (b. 1823)
James (b. 1845)
Basel Geter (b. 1880)
Horry Luther (b. 1916)
Jack Delano (b. 1936)
Larry Dale HUTTO (b. 1959) (me!)
(I've only proven up to Basel Geter; the rest is from various sources such as the late Edna Manning's research)

My aunt and others have taken my CREECH line back to Richard CREECH (CRICH) b. ca 1600, who imigrated from Scotland to Virginia about 1635. I'm really only actively researching my elusive GRIMES line (my mother's maiden name), but I'm interested in all of them. Other lines include MILES, GRUBBS, JOHNSTON, ZISSETTE, STILL, BLACK, WILLIS, GILLAM, DYCHES, and SEASE, most from the Barnwell, Orangeburgh, Allendale SC areas.

Thanks again for the opportunity to join the List.

Although I don't know what I'd have to offer as far as new information and I don't have a great deal of time doing research, I'm very interested in the possibilities.

I've only been involved in genealogy for about two years now, having initially volunteered to computerize my great-aunt's hand-written notes covering 40 or so years of research and gotten hooked in the process.

Jim,

Thanks for the Hutto information. That is the most comprehensive Hutto info that I have received since I started researching that lineage. It is a lot to look at, and so far I have only scanned each page, but I plan to read it and digest is soon. Attached are a list of other Hutto researchers that I have run across:

I hope that it is o.k. to pass your name along to others. networking is a great way to increase what we know about our families, but sometimes it can produce nuisance phone calls. if u would like for me to take you off of this list, or remove your phone number, let me know. i sent a Stein researcher your way recently, did that help you?

To Gene Jeffries:

Yes, I am still here <smile>, and that post got my attention.

I am MIGHTY curious where you came up with Bavaria for the entry:
"HUTTO - Bavaria, Germany".

I am aware of and have a copy of the text from the Council Journal 22 Feb 1738/9 ordering that Isaac Hotto and family be givin a warrent for 350 acres of land in Orangeburgh...

I am aware of and have a copy of the 25 July 1739 grant, of 350 acres
on the NE side of the Pon Pon river within the limits of Orangeburg Township
along with a one half acre Town Lot, to Isaac Hotto.

I am aware of the reasonable assumptions having Isaac and his family arrive on the ship Oliver. To my knowledge, a passenger list has not yet been located for this ship. It is only known that it carried "about 200 Palatines, most of them being poor". Quoting from a paper by A.D.
Hutto "The Huttos have traditionally regarded themselves as German,
and this is probably correct. "Palatines" refers to inhabitants
of the Electoral Palatinate of the Rhine, an area located in the present day west central Germany. However, in the 1700's, the term Palatine was used to refer indiscriminately to German immigrants generally. Efforts to locate the roots of the family
in Germany have produced no results to date."

A while back I wrote to the group to ask for help in locating the parents of Jacob Hutto b Orangeburg ca 1775 m Lydia ?? as an effort to help our wonderful genealogist who has helped so many over the years but now must retire because of health considerations. She is now down to part time in the library but is still doing her best to help others.

I am proud to announce that I think we are about to crack the case because of a mailing by Jim Blackstone of data he obtained from Mrs Nelda Hutto Martin of Fort Worth, TX. (Ref Jim's letter to the group on 12/13/95 asking help for a kind lady who has no computer but wishes to exchange info on SC Huttos)

In Mrs Martin's data she shows that Isaac Huttow had a son Charles b abt 1724 Germany. Charles, in turn, had a son Charles b Orangeburg , Five Holes, ca 1755. This Charles had the following offspring:

Charles b abt 1770 Orangeburg d 18 Jun 1882 Henry Co, AL.
George Sr b abt 1772 Orangeburg m Ann Hill d 10 May 1847 AL.
Daniel b abt 1774 Orangeburg.
Jacob b abt 1776 Orangeburg.

This Jacob b abt 1776 could well be the Jacob our Mrs Strickland has been looking for all these many years. He is supposed to have married a Lydia ???

Does anyone have any back-up or additional info concerning Jacob. It would be a wonderful XMAS present for Mrs Strickland.

Thank you!!!

To Jim Blackstone:

Thanks guy. Need I say more? I will write to Mrs Martin.

To Fred Hutto:

I will copy you with the data forwarded by Jim Blackstone.

HAPPY HOLIDAYS TO ALL

Sorry to say the back-up consisted only of a copy of the OTTO papers.

She also returned the $10 I had sent to defray her cost for copy and mailing.

I am grateful to her but we already had the Otto papers.

Still looking for the father and wife of the Jacob Hutto who according to her submission was the son of Charles Jr who was the son of Charles Sr who was the son of Isaac Hutto.

Would like to either prove this out or find who his father really was.

OLD MAN!!!!??? I'm just the kid in this group, just turned 50 last month! I am still dreaming about retirement days. <grin>

I don't know about how "valuable" the information is. I tend to trust most of what is in Edgar's little book and all of A.D. Dickson's paper. McAuley's paper has admitted speculation, and I don't believe most of what is in the father's day paper by Wilkes.

Will try to get one more paper off to you today. It is the
"FAMILY
RECORD OF ALLEN HUTTO, DICTATED TO JOHN R. HUTTO BY HIS FATHER, ALLEN HUTTO, September 29, 1909". This paper is mostly believable, and tends to question the viability of the information in the father's day paper.

BTW, thanks for the Andrea papers. I made copies of that work from the film in our local FHC in 1991, but yours look a lot beter.

Jim,

I got a small package of stuff off to you in todays mail.

On 25 Jan 1996 Ruth Anne Hutto (another very nice lady that I have been exchanging information with for a while) said in a letter to me; "I am getting a letter off to Nelda Hutto Martin, sending your address. Her line is Absalom "Alfred" C. H. Hutto, the #6 child of George and Meliceann Hutto, and she is the Granddaughter of Henry Jordan Hutto..."

And from a letter dated 3 Jan 1996 to me from William D. Parker (the gentleman that sent over a thousand pages of Hutto info to me); " I enclose a Ancestor Chart made by Nelda Hutto 1987-88 which was where she was then. I helped her to link up with George Solomon Hutto and lost track of her."

NOTE! The Otto Family paper by Richard McAuley that went in today's post contains the same ERROR that I have had in my own Hutto database until recently. That error is: In his FAM. 1 on page 4 the information that he shows for Henry, son of Peter is actually (in the main) the information for John Henry, son of Charles. The same can be said for his FAM. 2. on page 5: The wife and issue listed for John Henry, son of Charles is actually the wife and issue of Henry, son of Peter. The late A.D. Hutto did a lot of research on these Henrys (and the early generations of Hutto in general) and his information is my main source for making the above statements.

Also note on the McAuley paper on the top of page 3, he admits that he is unable to directly link George Solomon Hutto back to Isaac and Maria Catherina Hutto. And on page 10 he admittedly speculates about the

Finally, note that on page 11 near the top there is listed: j. Irwin*, b.,: removed to Marengo County, Alabama (with no further mention in his paper.) That is actually Columbus Irvin, my great grandfather.

I first wrote to Richard McAuley Sep 6, 1995, and enclosed a couple of dollars requesting a copy of his paper (At that time I only had a couple of pages of it.) Then being very anxious to get a copy of his paper (which I thought tied George Solomon Hutto back to Isaac and Maria Catherina Hutto), I found his telephone number and called. I spoke to his mother (sounded like a nice lady) at length, and found that Richard had just gotten back into town after having been out of the country. That he had not yet had the time to look at his mail. That she had been opening his mail and had seen my letter and assured me that it would be answered. She then requested some additional information from me, so the next day, 27 Sep 1995, I sent off a small stack of material (mostly descendants of George Solomon Hutto) addressed to both Richard and his mother. I eventually got a copy of his paper from another source, and have never heard from him or his mother.

Till later, Fred

Fred Hutto, 11:41 PM 12/23/95, Nelda HUTTO Martin

This information comes from a 19 page paper entitled in part "THE OTTO FAMILY OF ORANGEBURG DISTRICT, SOUTH CAROLINA..." compiled and edited by Richard Henry McAuley September 1994. If you do not have a copy of this paper, let me know and I will send a copy to you.

As you are probably aware, the first three generations of Hutto in this country have been fairly well determined. It is primarily the progeny of the third generation that very little documentation has been discovered on.

I also have questions on Nelda HUTTO Martin's family group sheet for Jordan Henry HUTTO b. 15 Nov 1853. She shows that he gets married during 1887. The 1880 Polk Co. TX census shows him as apparently married with one child. It is of course possible that he married more than once, but I am still curious about her sources.

At any rate, I will refrain from adding to her message workload at this time, in the hopes that you will get a response determining the quality of her data.

I am collecting information on all of the Huttos and their descendants. I would appreciate it if you would share with me the information that you have about Hiram King and Elizabeth Hutto, and their descendants.

The information that I have states that Elizabeth Hutto was born about 1826. Her father was Jacob H Hutto who was born 17 Nov 1793, and died about 1870 at Talladega County, AL. He was married to Elizabeth Gillam, and she was born 4 Jun 1792 in SC and died 30 Dec 1878 at Troy, Pike County, AL.

Jacob H Hutto's father was Henry Hutto, christened 25 Dec 1752 in Orangeburgh, SC, died 24 Oct 1817 in SC. He was married about 1780 in Orangeburg, SC, Ann Zorn who was born about 1760 and died 5 Jan 1837. (Her fathers name was Henry Zorn)

Henry Hutto's father was Peter Hutto. Peter was born about 1726 and married Margaret Barbara Shuler about 1740 in SC. (Her fathers name was Jacob Peter Hutto's father was the original Hutto immigrant to this country, Isaac Hutto. Isaac was born about 1695, probably in Germany or Switzerland.

He died 15 Aug 1752 in Orangeburg, SC. He was married to his wife Maria Catherina (last name unknown) prior to arriving in this country.

If you would like to have group sheets on those families, and some other information on the early Huttos in this country, let me know and I will mail them to you.

I probably should wait until I have had a chance to go to Orangeburg and research this futher but since so many Hutto decendants have signed on here maybe someone can save me some effort. Of the children of the first Henry Salley that came here in 1735 five were born in Switzerland and one here in S.C. From the emigration records apparently only four of the children came with the parents to this country and three of those are documented leaving either Barbara or Elsbeth unaccounted for. Since three are documented in the Giessendanner records I feel that the fourth should be there somewhere. The marriage between Peter Hutto and Barbara Shuler was not recorded in the original marriage records but on the list compiled after Giessendanner returned from England. Ann Mary Salley's marriage was also on that list and her name was spelled Sahly even thoigh her brothers names were recorded as Sally on the earlier records. One later birth record of Peter and Barbara show the birth of a son Henry with Henry Salley as a sponser. Another birth record of Peter and Barbara show the birth of a son Martin and Martin Salley was a sponser. Also have seen a land record showing joint ownership of 270 acres of land by Martin Salley and Gideon Hutto. Although we have connections with the Hutto family through the Gleton branch of my family we don't show any connections at the time of that plat in 1812. Given the various spellings of these names in the Giessendanner records and the probable similarity of the names Salley and Shuler in German is it

Hello to the group:

My problem with the HUTTO family stems from the hand written notes I have copied at the Huxford Genealogical Library at Homerville, Ga concerning Jackson Newman HUTTO. He wrote that Belle b 1880 m Velpo Tomlinson (grandparents of my wife Geraldine TOMLINSON). Other children were:

Josephine Matilda b 1868 m ---MILLS :Jack & Mary (Children?)
Isaac Demd (unreadable) b 1871 m Catherine M Joyce. dau of Wm C.
Katie b 18-- m James Perry C--- (unreadable) 11-7-1901

Also, Jackson Newman - Clinch 1870 with parents Adopted son of Rev Isaac

D HUTTO. Born May 1 1848. Died near Dupont, Oct 2t,1909. Buried at Prospect Church. M Martha Dame, dau of Geo. Dame b 7-27-1844 added later(?) Name was Jackson NEWMAN son of James NEWMAN

Baptised into Prospect Church 6/5/1909- died a member. His wife baptized into same church 2/10/1867. Expelled 9/5/1896. Restored 8/5/98. Died a member.

So, therein lies my problem! So far I haven't been able to locate James NEWMAN to see why or when the adoption occurred. I Presume(??) that Jackson was possibly related in some other way than by adoption as this often occurred when parents died or just seemed to disappear.

Any help along these lines would certainly be appreciated. My whole search began when we tried to locate a photo of my wife's father Felser TOMLINSON who died in 1939. He was the son of Belle and Velpo but no photos seem to exist in any places we have tried.

Thanks for listening and "A very happy season to all on this list, remembering the reason is JESUS"

Thanks for the reply to my request to join your list. I get the address from another of the members, Fred Hutto, who is one of the distant relatives of my wife (Geraldine nee Tomlinson) Her paternal grandmother was Belle HUTTO, who married Velpe TOMLINSON. She was the daughter of Jackson Newman HUTTO said to be the son of Rev Isaac Delk HUTTO (adopted?). I have the gedcom file from Fred Hutto going back to ISAAC HUTTO b 1695 and have been able to add the names of Bell's descendents to some degree. This gives me a list of 10 generations but is not nearly complete except on this one line.

Other names of interest are WARD, MONK, HARDEMAN, TOMLINSON.

My families were in the northern states and came from Germany, Finland, Estonia and Possible Swiss or Alsace. They are NUSSBAUM (NUSBAUM, AUGUST), BIERMAN, WESICK (WESIK, VESIK), HAAPALAINEN.

Living in southern Oregon is a great thing but finding many of the books that are available with the lists and articles about the families of interest is difficult so the internet is my main source at this time.

Smail address is:

Sorry I can't be of much help on Jacob and Lydia Hutto, they are not in my database. Although I am a descendant of Susan Ann Hutto (Great Grandmother, married James Coleman Blackstone M. ca 1903), and she is apparently from SC, I have not done much research on this name line. I know that these folks were not living in GA during 1860 since neither of their names appear on the 1860 GA Federal Census, although there are approx. 38 Huttos shown in the Census Index of that year. I have some research on the Huttos that another family member did several years ago. It shows Families and Soundex pages from copies of index cards that I have been given to me by a wicked stepmother. I will mail it to you and maybe you can put some of the peices together. Most of my Hutto data is about Farmers in SC in Barnwell District.

Some other folks looking for the Huttos are:

In a message dated 95-11-17 09:39:28 EST, you write:

>He was married to a Susan Anne Hutto, and I think that her family was from SC.

There was a HUTTO family that arived in the Orangeburg District of SC from Germany about 1739. This is not part of my family but I have done quite a bit of research about the Orangeburg emigrants and I think I have a little about the HUTTO family on file.

Are you aware of the Orangeburg, SC mailing list? If not you might consider joining us. There are several researchers connected to the HUTTO family and I could be wrong, but I think I remember the name BLACKSTONE mentioned before on the list. To join us on the Orangeburg list, just write to nn105474@dasher.csd.sc.edu and introduce yourself and tell a little

Will,

Received the Hutto information in the mail today. Thank you very much.

One more brief question. What was the name of the book that these pages were copied from? (You mentioned the printing date, who compiled it, and what the book was about - but no title.) :-)

Let me know if you need any look-ups in this part of the country!

Jim Steinwinder,
I just this weekend received from a cousin a book that has about 21 or 22 pages on the Huttos. It is on the Gleaton and allied families in the Orangeburg
area. It was first printed in 1941 and revised in 1975.
It was compiled by Grace Gleaton Branch, who became a Mormon early in her life and did considerable research on the branches of her family. It appears that Issac Hutto came to Orangeburg about 1745/47 and died there 8/17/1752. There are several mentions of a Jacob Hutto but most of them seem to be too early to have been born c.1775.
The only reference to a Lydia that I could find was to Lydia Harman wife of John Hutto. Also a Lydia Hutto (1802/1863) buried in Laurens Co. Ga.
Mrs. Branch prefaced this section by saying that the Hutto line was difficult because the different branches used the same names in each family and each generation.
This was not in outline form but a compilation of letters, professional genealogist reports, etc. If you would like I can copy that section andmail it to you if you will send me your address.

Dick says his wife is related to Jacob Hutto. He talked just great to Fred and me and got our GEDCOM with a promise of his in return. And, then he promised again, and again. I haven't given up, I sent him another reminder last week.

HI ALL! With regard to the Jacob HUTTO problem, I know Richard Pence personally, and, well, I hope he still knows me personally. He is a very nice guy. If he is a descendant of Jacob HUTTO, then J. HUTTO must have lived in Virginia?

Did yall read R. Pence's article on deed mapping on computer in the new NGS Quarterly? It's great. We must begin a big project of doing the rest of O'bg. Dist. that GeLee Hendrix hasn't done!!! OH YEAH? YEAH! 'Course it may take till 2020.

Jim,

I am collecting information on all those named Hutto.

So far the only one that I am aware of that is/was researching that particular line is Richard Pence of fidonet genealogy infamy. I understand that his wife is a descendant of Jacob & Lydia Hutto. I can not say whether he has any knowledge of the parents of Jacob Hutto. Unfortunately he is not very willing to share his research information, as Gene Jefferies can attest to. We have both been promised information from him several times over the past few years, but have yet to receive it!

Benjamin, the youngest son of Isaac the first and Maria Catherina, was probably born soon after Isaac, Jr., for Maria Catherina's child bearing years would be running out. Benjamin moved westward (SC), and there is an indication that he received land near Rocky Swamp. This would have located him in the vicinity with his brother Isaac and his sister Sarah Varnedoe. The appearance of a Henry Mill, Jr., in this same area raises the possibility that Henry Mell and Maria Catherina also moved to the Rocky Swamp Section. Benjamin received a grant in 1787 on Giddy Swamp, a few miles further west and now part of Aiken County, on the eastern outskirts of Wagener. A Benjamin who died during the Rev.War was probably his son, and a later "Benjamin Jr." his grandson. Gene,

I just receievd the messages from OGS, great idea. Please change my E-Mail address to vgwill@sooner.win.net. This is a mailserver which my computer connects to automatically every four hours. The other address is ok, but I sometimes forget to check my mail. I guess I need to renew my membership to the OGS.

Regards

FAMILY RECORD OF ALLEN HUTTO
DICTATED TO JOHN R. HUTTO

By HIS FATHER, ALLEN HUTTO
September 29, 1909

I, Allen Hutto, was born in Barnwell District (County) South Carolina, April 17, 1828. My father's name was Jacob Hutto, born in S. C. Nov. 17, 1793. My mother, Elizabeth Gillam Hutto, was born June 4, 1792. My Grandfather was named Henry. He died before I could remember. He was a soldier in the American Revolution and was so badly wounded that he remained a cripple the rest of his life. Brother Henry remember seeing him. My maternal Grandmother was Anne Zorn. I remember seeing her twice. I was about four years old at that time. She lived to be very old, possibly ninety or more.

Their oldest son, Uncle Bill Hutto, had a son named James. He had two children, a son and a daughter. He first married a Felder. His second wife was Drucilla Turner. They had no children. He was a second Lieutenant in the Indian Wars in Florida. He was also sheriff of Barnwell district for four years. Jim was captured by the Yankees during the Civil War. He was not an active soldier in the war, but the Yankees regarded him as a dangerous man to their cause. He was old and died on the march. I think cousin Henry was captured with Jim and died in captivity. He was rich, had two plantations, and 60 Negro Slaves. Henry was also in the Indian Wars. They had another brother, Isaac. I know nothing about him. Uncle Billy had another son, Jackson, who died in S. C. and left a family. Another son was named Jacob. He and his son-in-law were in the Confederate Army. Uncle Billy's youngest son was named Dave. He reached the rank of Colonel in the Confederate Army, Uncle Billy had two daughters. Mary married Silas Eaves and lived in Barnwell district. His daughter Anne married Henry Kennedy, a deacon in the Baptist church. They were wealthy.

My second uncle was named Isaac. He had a son Isaac. I was not well acquainted with this family. Isaac Jr. as I remember, went to Georgia at an early date and became a Primitive Baptist preacher.

Uncle Henry Hutto had three sons. As I remember, they were Jacob, John, and Nickolas. Jacob went to Dale County, Alabama before my father did. We moved to Alabama in 1836. Jacob married late in life. John moved to Clark County, Alabama. He had several children. Nickolas died in Dale County, Alabama. He was a fine looking man, but drank some. He had two girls by his first wife. I don't know about his last wife.

I don't know much about Uncle Charlie Hutto. He moved to Pike County, Alabama about 1838. He first married a Jeter and they had a daughter. His second wife was a widow Jeter, who was a Gillam before her first marriage. They had three daughters: Rebecca, Susie, and Vina (Lavina). Uncle Charlie had a son named Jimmy. Jimmy was in the Confederate Army. I met one of Susie's sons in the Army. One of Uncle Charlie's older sons was found dead in a fence-corner.

My fathers twin brother, John, lived and died in South Carolina. I never knew anything about his family.

Uncle Nickolas Hutto lived and died in Barnwell County, S. C. He married a widow with a son named Willis. Uncle Willis had a son named Nickolas who served in the Confederate Army. He married Susan Jeter. Uncle Nickolas second son was named Benjamin. He married a Bloom. When I was in the Confederate Army, I visited in S. C. and spent some time in Ben's home. He was a little younger than I. The third son, Gideon, was in the Confederate Army. I don't know if he lived through it or not. I don't know about Uncle Nickolas's girls.

Aunt Nancy Hutto married a Delk. They had two sons: Jacob and Henry. She had a girl named Elizabeth.

Aunt Polly Hutto married Jake Jackson. They moved to Dale County, Alabama. They had two sons, Jim and Elvin. Elvin was in the Confederate Army. They had four daughters, Drucilla, Kathy, Jane and Rebecca. Aunt Rebecca moved to Georgia. I don't know about the family.

When I was on my furlough I told you about, I stopped at a man's house to inquire about the Huttos. He had lots of property and was interested in the outcome of the war. He said, "You have no reason to be ashamed of your family. There's not a coward in the bunch. They are all in the Army fighting for our cause."

Huttos not of My Immediate Family

There were two brothers, George and Dave Hutto whom my father called Uncle. They were South Carolina's and lived in Henry (or Dale) Counties. The town was Abbeville. Brother Henry went to see a man hanged at Abbeville and the Sheriff was George Hutto.

Cousin John Hutto moved from S. C. at a very early date to Clark County, Alabama. Jacob and John served as justice-of-peace. They were Methodist. Jacob was a better man than John. I heard he, John, took to drinking.

There is a tradition that two Hutto brothers came to S. C. at a very early date. I was told when a child that they were of Dutch Ancestry. (The word "Dutch" in those days usually referred to most any person of European descent whose native language was not English). (Added by J. R. H. )

Record Of My Father's Family

My father was a great hunter and fisherman. He joined the U. S. Army in the War of 1812, but I don't think he saw much active service. He was too young in the early part of the war. When I was eight years old, in 1836, my parents moved to Alabama. They lived principally in Pike and Coffee Counties. He was a man of medium size, drank excessively for many years, but was always kind to his family. He died at the age of 77 of kidney trouble. He was buried at Pleasant Grove Church Cemetery, a few miles south of Lincoln, Alabama. (In 1947 his descendants had a monument placed at his grave.) The inscription reads: Jacob Hutto, son of Henry and Anna Zorn Hutto, born in S. C. 11-17-1793; Died 1870. My mother had black hair that never turned gray. She was badly stooped with rheumatism. She was buried in a wide casket and was laid on her side. (Through much effort her grave has been found, buried at Hopewell Church near Troy, Alabama.) On her tombstone is: Elizabeth Hutto; born June 4, 1792; died December 30, 1878. She was about 86 and one-half years old.

Henry J. Hutto, my father's oldest child, was born Dec. 29, 1820. He married Lou Gilmore. They had sons; John, Monroe, Joe, Ivey and Taylor. Joe died of measles in the Confederate Army. Ivey was with me part of the time in the Confederate army. All had families except Joe.

My oldest sister, Sarah, was born Dec. 8, 1822. She married Bill Posey, and reared a large family. John, the oldest son, married an Emerson. They in turn had two sons, Henry and Dick. Aunt Sarah had daughters, Sarah Ann, Georgia Ann, and a daughter named Mary. I think one of the daughters married a Taylor.

My sister, Elizabeth, was born in 1826. She married Hyram King. The Kings were Primitive Baptist. They had a large family. Their sons were Ellis, Allen, and one named Charlie, as I remember. I do not remember the names of her daughters. One it seems was named Mary Ann.

Sister Matilda was born Jan 26, 1832. She married Daniel Cole in Pike County, Alabama. Cole was a dark complexioned man. They had three or four children. My sister died rather young. Cole married the second time to Malinda Jackson.

My baby sister, Susan Ann was born Aug. 14, 1834. She married George Bennett. She has sons, Jim Monroe, Allen, Willie, and Guy. Their oldest daughter was named Millie. Another daughter, Alice, married a Bozeman. They had nice families. Some of the Bennetts live in Arkadelphia, Ark. Some of them live in Texas.

Record Of My Family

My first wife, Sarah Bennett, was the daughter of Redman Bennett. His son, George Bennett, married my youngest sister. Our children are double cousins. My wife was born Sept. 17, 1831. She was of medium size and had dark curly hair.

My oldest child, Jane Matilda, was born Sept. 18, 1851. She married William Molloy. She died in Wise County, Texas several years ago. Their oldest child, Anna, married first John McCullars. He died of Tuberculosis and they had no children. Later she married Tom Dixon of Wise County, Texas. They had several children and still live in Wise County. The second daughter Willie, married Jutty O'Kelley. His father rented land from me nine years in Alabama. Their oldest child is named Jimmy. Jane had two sons, Arthur, and John. They were both married and have families.

Our oldest son, Thomas, was born Feb. 23, 1853. He died in Florida in Dec. 1854. Our second son Jacob, was born in Florida May 9, 1857. He died in August 1861.

Our third son, George Washington, was born in Florida Jul 23 1859. His first wife was Polly McReynolds. One child survives, Kinie (Katherine) Portwood of Southland, Texas. They have one son, Lester Portwood. George's second marriage was with Susie Jarman of Eastaboga, Alabama. They have sons; George, Wilson, John Willie and the daughters names are, Pearl, Rilla, Della, Edna, Ethel, Winonna, and Elene.

Sarah Ann Hutto was born Aug. 17, 1861. She married Jim Hunnicutt. She is dead, and they had several children and live in Alabama. Allen Augustus Hutto, my preacher boy, was born June 19, 1863. He married Margaret Acker in Talladega County, Alabama. They have sons, Jasper Cunningham and Spurgeon.

Charles Nickolas Hutto was born Jan. 30, 1866. He married Della Stine of St. Clair County, Alabama. They have sons; Jim, Lelus, Herman, and Verna. They have daughters; Emma, Lillie, Ruda, Alta and Reba. They live in Texas.

Millie Ann Hutto was born Mar. 23, 1868. She married Joe McReynolds of Jacksonville, Ala. He was a kinsman of Kinie's mother. They have sons; John, Amos, Macon, Gaston, Jacob and Hollis. Their daughters are Maude, Ola, Gladys and Vera.

Our youngest daughter, Maggie, was born Dec. 2, 1869. She married Jim McCullars. She died in Alabama. They had a daughter Leola, and sons Charles, Allen and Henry. Jim McCullar died of Tuberculosis.

James Redmon Hutto was born May 13 1875. (One child was born dead between Maggie and Jim, but was never named). Jim married Etta Martin of Wise County, Texas. They have two sons, Homer Hobson, and Charles Marvin and one daughter Marjorie Martin.

Our youngest son, Joseph Benjamin, was born October 22, 1877. His mother died before he was two days old. He married Emma Stine, a sister to Nick's wife. They have two sons, Hovell, Howard, and a daughter Alma. My first wife was the mother of 13 children.

My Second Wife and Family

My second wife was Mrs. Margaret Allen. She had no children by her first husband. Her maiden name was Teasley. Her mother's maiden name was Virginia Guinn. They were Virginians. My wife had an Uncle Thomas, a teacher, and was last heard of in the Confederate Army.

(Added by J. R. H.) My father lived in Florida six years, while there, was converted under the preaching of a Methodist Missionary, joined the Methodist Church, but after returning to Alabama joined a Baptist Church. When asked, why? His reply was, "because I believed as the Baptist do." He refused to be a deacon because he said, "I was not apt to teach."

My wife was born in Talladega County, Alabama, August 17, 1845. Her family, as were mine, were Methodist. She was converted at 15 and joined a Baptist Church by "preference."

Our oldest son, John R. Hutto, was born in Lincoln, Alabama, Sept. 29, 1879. (Added by J. R. H.) My mother tells me I was born on Monday morning. Dr. W. T. Castleberry, attending. I married Rebecca Nelson at Abilene, Tex., August 2, 1903. We have one son, Nelson Allen, born in Nuevo Laredo, Mexico, Dec. 12, 1904, educated at Hardin Simmons University, and Columbia. Married Pauline Hardesty, and is now head of Journalism Department, Sunset High, Dallas, Texas. They have two daughters, Emily Francis, and Erma Nell. (This has all been added by J. R. H. in 1950).

Our second son, Henry Guinn, was born Feb. 26, 1882. Our third son, Theodore Burns (named after a good neighbor) was born Aug. 28, 1884. These children died within three weeks of each other and were buried at Eastaboga, Alabama, by the side of my first wife.

Our youngest son, William Webster, was born at Lincoln, Apr. 17, 1887, on my 59th birthday. (Added by J. R. H.) He married Mattie Few Meredith of Waco, Texas. They have four children; Meredith, Clopton Allen, Lois and Addie Margaret. (J. R. H.)

Record of My Mother's People.

My mother was Elizabeth Gillam. The family came to S.C. from Virginia. She had brothers John, Jim, Joe and Thomas. Her sisters were Patsy, Susie and Lavina. Patsy married a Richardson. Susie married Uncle Charlie Hutto. They moved to Florida where Uncle Charlie died. Lavina married John Patrick. They had sons, George and John B. Patrick, born 1832, William Lucius, born 1834, James Edmond, born 1836, Carolina Lucia, born 1839, Sarah Elizabeth, born 1844. Charles Marion, born 1842, George Washington, born 1850. John B. Patrick, known as Col. John B. Patrick, was an officer in the Confederate Army. He spent the most of his life as an educator, founded the Patrick Military Institute at Anderson, S. C. His son, Dr. Robert G. Patrick, was president for several years of Judson (Baptist) Female College, Marion, Ala. This Institution pioneered in America in the education of women. Some of the above information was furnished by J. Patrick Sullivan, treasurer of the Sullivan Hardware Co., a large chain-store with eight or ten branches in S. C. His mother was my father's first cousin. Concerning her mother, Lavina Gillam Patrick, she said, "she had the reputation of being a most beautiful woman." A grandson writes of her, "My grandmother was from S. C. and was a very beautiful woman." My father, Allen Hutto, said to me that his mother was a "goodlooking woman." These facts throw light on our grandmother's people. (Added by J. R. H.)

LATER FACTS ON FAMILY HISTORY

Many of the facts herein cited were in a letter to John R. Hutto written by Jasper C. Hutto, from Orangeburg, S. C., Oct. 12, 1938. The facts were taken from the Episcopal Church records of Orangeburg. In July 1735 two ship loads of Swiss and German (Austrians) landed on Edisto Island, S. C., and proceeded up the river a distance where they founded the town of Orangeburg. These immigrants were looking for homes and religious freedom. They were doubtless of the Evangelical Reform or Luthern Churches. Their Swiss Minister, Rev. Geissendaner went to England to receive ordination as a member of the Church of England. Among these 200 Immigrants were Isaac Hutto and his wife Catherine Maria, and several children. They received a tract of land, fifty acres for each member of the family. The spelling of the name varied: Hotto, Hottow, Huttow, Huttaw, and Hutto. All families, however, trace to Isaac Hutto. The name Catherine Maria sounds like a Latin name, but in this case it is French.

In 1906 I met a man in Laredo, Texas, Quarrier, who claimed to be of the Protestant (Huguenot) lineage that settled in S. C. When I told him my name, he stated immediately that it was French in origin. I told him that my father said the name was of Dutch Origin he replied emphatically, "No, thats French, I have a boy named Hutto." In the month of June 1950 I met a "Bostonian Lady", who said she had lived quite a while in Paris France, and that "Hutto Name" was common in that city. The student of Hutto Tradition can take these statements for what they are worth.

Switzerland was the home of the great Protestant Reformers, Zuinglius & Calvin. They lived in the day of severe Catholic persecution and became refuge for persecuted Protestants. These bold mountaineers of Switzerland defied the authority of Austria and one by one added small districts to the country. The Evangelical Reform Church and the Catholic Church predominate in Switzerland today. They rate in number about 60 to 40 in favor of the Protestants.

Approximately 71% of the people of Switzerland speak German, 22% speak French, 5% speak Italian and the rest speak Romansch. It is easy to conclude that the Germans predominated in the colony. According to Jasper Hutto's letter, early Huttos married Zeiglers, Hartzogs, and Zorns. This links them with Anna Zorn, my father's grandmother. His letter indicated that the settlers were called Switzers, Salsburgers, and Palatines. The followers of the Duke of Orangeburg were sometimes called Palatines. The name had different significations. Considering the poor means of transportation and communications of that day it is difficult to conclude that the people of Germany and Switzerland could have united their efforts in a colonization scheme in America. This causes me to believe that the 200 Immigrants that settled in Orangeburg, S. C. in 1735 were from Switzerland. This is another point for study.

According to Jasper Hutto's findings (and they should be accurate, as he holds three college and university degrees, one in journalism), one Henry Hutto was a "Petty Officer" in the Revolutionary War and a record was found wherein he was paid for his services as a soldier. The substantiation of that fact would entitle the Hutto females to become members of the Daughters of the American Revolution. According to my father's and Uncle Henry's statements (I heard them make), Grandmother Anna Zorn Hutto was about 90 years old when she died in 1832. Taking that date as a basis, she was born about seven years after the arrival of the colonists in America. Her husband, Henry Hutto, was about her age. It is easy for me to conclude therefore, that the Henry Hutto who was a "Petty Officer" in Washington's Army was my great-grandfather, Henry Hutto married Anna Zorn.

Jasper's letter also states that Huttos are scattered all over S. C., especially in the south. Some telephone directories have whole pages devoted to "Hutto Listings". Among them are laborers, farmers, doctors, lawyers, teachers, preachers, bank officials and etc. He states that in some localities the name is pronounced Hutt-o and in others Hut-to, with emphasis on the last syllable. Besides my family, I have met six other Hutto families in Texas. All pronounce the name Hut-to. I have been told that some people around Hutto, Texas pronounce the name Hutt-o. When I passed through the town in 1903, the porter called it "Huddo." Uncle Henry born in 1820 received from his father, born in 1793, the pronunciation of Hut-to. Another observation, "if" my brother Webster, lives to be 81 he will see the 140th anniversary of our father's birth and will be the "few" in America who can say, "My great-grandfather fought in George Washington's Army." Two outstanding characteristics of our family are: honesty and home ownership. The Lord forbid that we destroy the good name! John R. Hutto, July 4th, 1950. (Note, he lived for many years in Abilene, Texas. wdp)

NOTE

This entire document was retyped from the most original copy located to date. It was sent to me by Mrs. Buryl (Jean) Hutto of Arlington, Texas who had gotten it from Joseph Howard Hutto of Arlington. I visited with C. Allen "Topsy" Hutto of Richardson, (now deceased), a cousin of Joseph Howard's and he has an identical "Original" (much yellowed with time) copy of this same one given to him by his cousin, Nelson A. Hutto, son of John Renfro Hutto who wrote it. I have been in contact with Nelson's daughter, Emily (Hutto) Frederick and she has promised to send me the records she has that were her fathers. In later copies of this document, someone had changed, in para. 11, the name of the brother George to Henry. Since Allen is the person dictating this family record, his father was Jacob Hutto and Jacob's father was Henry Hutto who fought in the American Revolution. The statement made is that Allen's father, Jacob, called these two brothers Uncle; therefore they were brothers of his father Henry and their names were George and Dave.

I believe this document to be a vital record to the families of many Huttos in S.C., Ala., Ga, Miss., La., Ark. and Tx. as it ties them together into one extensive family. The 55 page "OUTLINE" and 14 pages of Indexes that I have assembled is based largely on this document. The inclusion of George and Dave was made on this information. Due to his reported age, George Hutto Sr., b.ca.1774 could hardly be a brother of Henry Hutto of this Family who was born 25 Dec 1752. Somewhere we all are descendants of these people and it is hoped that this start may spur others to help sort it all out.

We note in this document, John R. Hutto's reference to a letter from Jasper C. Hutto of Orangeburg, S.C. dated Oct. 12, 1938. I have not been able to locate Jasper in any of the records available to me and feel that he probably did some research on the Hutto family that could shed some light on some of the dangling lines.

In Edgar Hutto's book, ISAAC (OTTO) HUTTO, he lists John R. Hutto of Abilene, Texas in his acknowledgements.

This info was sent to me
by Fred Hutto.

I have a copy of "Isaac Hutto from the German Rhine to Edisto in Carolina."

However, this is the only info I have beside the descendants of Samuel B.
Hutto.

Any other info you have would be greatly appreciated.
I have enclosed a SASE.

Thanks

Yvonne,

I as all others on the Orangeburg List have so much Hutto info that it is hard to keep our heads straight on the matter.

Let me explain first my involvement in Hutto research and how I have become a primary Hutto researcher.

Our pro gen researcher had to retire more than a year ago because of age and bad health. She had been such a dream to us here with her unselfish dedication to helping others for free for so many years that I set out to solve her brickwall that had haunted her for so long. And that is who was the father of Jacob Hutto b ca 1775, SC m Lydia ??? ca 1785. There are so many Jacob Huttos!!!!

I myself have a Hutto connection in Barnwell Co, SC and that is Ethel Stivender b ca 1882 who married Charles Henry Hutto b 7 Jan 1883 but I have never pursued this line. Both buried Salem Meth Church in Bamberg Co.

I posted several Hutto info listings on our newsgroup and as a result have at least half a dozen Hutto papers and dozens of Hutto E-mails some containing many pages of lineage charts.

As to your offer I would love to have a copy of Samuel Hutto's charts back to Isaac. Will respond in kind early next week.

As to Isaac Hutto.

Isaac (Otto) Hutto, his wife Maria Catherina and seven children are believed to have immigrated from Sobernheim in southwestern Germany arriving at Charles Town in July 1735. He petitioned for and received a royal land grant of 350 ac of land on the Edisto River on 1 Mar 1743.

According to the Rev Geissendanner on 15 Aug 1752 Isaac Otto's body was discovered on a path leading to his home and was buried the following morning along with his granddaughter Susannah who had died after a short illness.

Fred,

In a past messsage to me you mentioned that you have a 19-page paper covering the Otto family and that you would copy me if I so desire.

I so desire.

Also I snailed to you today the Leonardo Andrea study of the Hutto family.

WARNING!!!! This study is far inferior to the other studies that he performed in his lifetime. He did an excellent study of my family (Steinwender/Stivender/Steinwinder) in 1955.

Dear Ms. Martin,

We did research in your library several months ago and enjoyed it very much. I'm sending you the e-mail address for the book that is about the descendants of Isaac Hutto's daughter Sarah. It is: THE ANCESTORS OF GEORGE & HAZEL MULLINS, <http://uts.cc.utexas.edu/~pmullins/chapter01.htm>. I hope you enjoy reading it.

1. This information has been obtained from the S. C. S. Archives in Columbia, S. C. as well as from other sources information that are available....The margin numbers are for cross references...The margin has been made so that the paper can be put into book form.
2. Information that Mrs. Grace Gleaton Branch has sent. My great grandmother was..Ann Marish Hutto, born 1805 in S. C. and died in 1888 in Alabama. She married Levi Gleaton who was born in S. C.
An Alabama 1850 Census gives the family of Levi Gleaton and his wife Marish, in the family at that time was a Sarah Hutto, age 60 born in S. C. She was 15 years older than Ann Marish. I have heard that when my great grandfather Levi Gleaton married the Dutch girl Ann Mariah Hutto, there was a family row and that was one reason Levi and Marish left S. C. b - James F. Hutto, once a Legislator of S. C. wrote me that his great grandmother had a sister, Ann Marish Hutto who married a Levi Gleaton and moved to Alabama. My great grandfather was Levi Columbus Gleaton who married Ann Mariah Hutto. His great grandmother was Mary Louise Hutto, and further said back of her that was a Sallie Hutto, who owned considerable property around the Orangeburg area. Her parents were Isaac and Sarah Hutto according to old family Bible record.
3. Royal Land Grants in S. C.
Land was applied for and granted to the heads of families, widows and single men who were over 16 years old and sometimes single girls. The acreage was determined by how many people were in the family and before 1760-65 the slaves were included. Sometimes odd acreage was taken. For example, in some years 100a were granted to the head of a family and other years 50a. Then 50a would be granted for the wife and 50a for each child and slave, if before 1760.

a. Before 1782-1785 S. C. was divided into four counties and they were: Granville, Colleton, Berkley and Craven. The majority of the Huttos settled in Berkley Co. or the present day orangeburg county.

My. Dear Miss Gleaton:

I am sorry to have delayed so long the answer to your letter of inquiry about the Hutto Family; but I have been ill twice since it came and not equal to working or records, and now have a bad hand that makes a pencil scrawl safer than a pen and ink letter.

I have never had occasion to work out to completion a Hutto family record and have been interested only in making notes whenever and found them because they were among the early settlers of Thomas Co., Ga. If you have the Orangeburg Co., History, of course you know the beginning of the family in this country, and that the name was originally Huttow.

Isaac Sr., who died in 1752, age 57 years, appears to be the original settler. His widow, Maria Catherine, whom he married before leaving Germany, mar. Henry Mell. I think Isaac, Jr., Peter, Charles, and Jacob were sons of Isaac Sr. and Maria C. The one for whom I found a Revolutionary record is Henry Huttup, who was, and believe, son of Peter. Charles had a son, John Henry, both born about the sametime. The name Maria probably came down to us from the original Maria Catherina, wife of Isaac Sr.

The earliest of the name I have found so far in Georgia are John, Henry, and Charles Hutto in Laurens Co., Ga. Where all three were married and John & Henry served as soldiers in the war of 1812.

The 1st Census, U.S.A., 1790, for S.C. shows the following Heads of Families in Orangeburg County: 2 Charles, 2 Isaacs, 1 Amin, Henry, John, Jacob.

The oldest dates in the old cemetery where the earliest of that came down into S.W. Ga. are buried is that of Hutto, b. 1802; d. 1863, J. H. Middleton Hutto, b. 1814. I think he is related to the three Hutto that lived in Laurens Co., Ga. and he may be a son of Isaac Hutto, and Thomas Co., Ga. (this country) in 1836 & again in 1859.

James Hutto of Hamilton Co. of the territory of Florida lived in this county in 1836. Middleton (H.J.M.) sold land in this county in 1843. Administration on his estate was closed in 1865.

Prominent citizen and businessman dies at home

By Carol Owens

Clarke County lost one of its distinguished citizens and a prominent businessman last week with the death of V.L. "Boo" Hutto.

Hutto, 83, died May 17, at his residence in Shubuta.

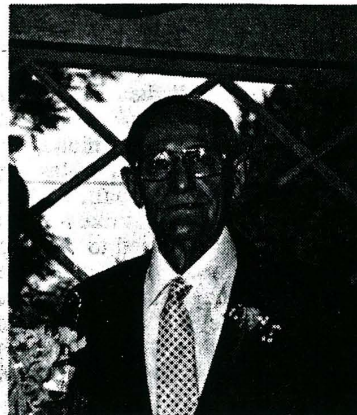

He was born to Laford and Allie Trigg Hutto on Dec. 30, 1910 in Clara, Miss., located in Wayne County.

Hutto attended Decatur Junior College and the University of Southern Mississippi where he earned his Teacher's Certificate.

He and his family came to Shubuta in 1942 where he served as a coach and a teacher at Shubuta High School, teaching science, math and chemistry and coaching primarily basketball, but also coached football and baseball.

Frank McLendon of Quitman served as a basketball official and speaks fondly of Hutto.

"He was an outstanding athlete and coach," he said. "He was a fine athlete and a fine man. He and I have always been mighty good friends. He was a sports lover, a gentleman and a successful businessman in Quitman, Shubuta and Waynesboro. He was also a good family man and I had a great deal of admiration for him."

V. L. "Boo" Hutto

Hutto and his wife, Dora Mae, opened a business in Shubuta, "Boo's Cafe," which they ran for many years.

It was during that time he also went into the furniture business.

Hutto owned furniture stores in Quitman, Waynesboro and Shubuta at the time of his death.

The original furniture store in Shubuta will be 49-years-old in November. His children, Denece Knighten and Bubba Hutto presently operate the stores.

"My Daddy was very generous to working people," Knighten said. "He would give jobs to people if they needed them in

Jones couple honored on anniversary

LAUREL — Mr. and Mrs. J.R. Jones Sr. of Laurel celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary with a reception in the fellowship hall of Mill Creek Church of God in Laurel May 2.

Hosting the celebration were their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Harold (Jan) Walters of Pascagoula.

The son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Julius (Irene) Jones took as his bride the former Margie Nell Hutto, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry (Donnie) Hutto, on May 3, 1943, in Laurel.

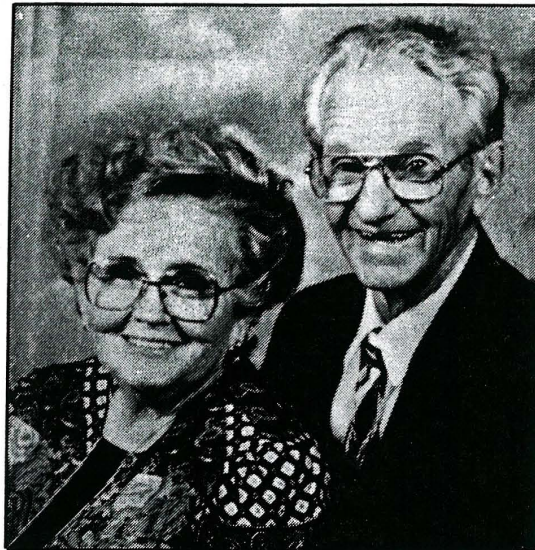

Decorated in gold and white with numerous ferns and palms, the hall had a special table with a bouquet of white roses in memory of the couple's son, Johnny Ray Jones Jr. This memory table also held albums and framed pictures of family members.

The centerpiece, a large floral arrangement of calla lilies, white roses, fresca and Canadian passion lilies, held special meaning for the couple, since the bowl in which it was placed was an anniversary gift from their children 42 years ago.

Guests were served from a four-tiered white cake decorated with gold roses and a chocolate groom's cake topped with iced grapes. Both were made by Betty Busbea.

At the register were Mrs. Busbea and Edie Walters. Assisting in serving were Candice Walters, granddaughter; Joey and Martha Jones, Jimmy and Denissa Jones, and Flint and Delesa Walters, all grandsons and their wives; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Robinson, Michael Howell and Carolyn Howell along with members of Mrs. Jones' Sunday school class.

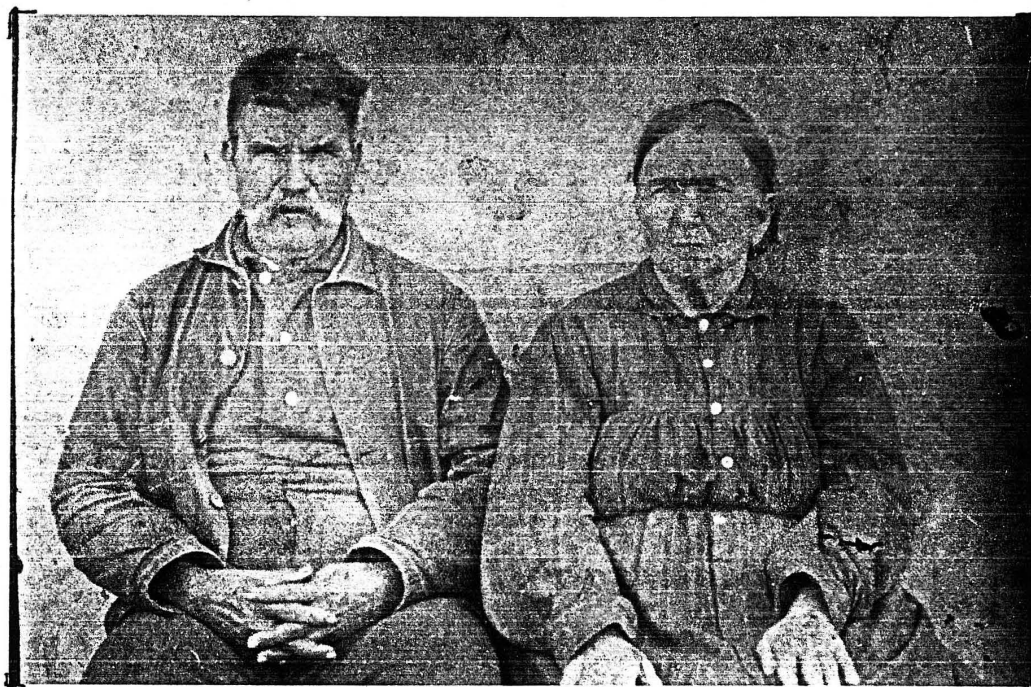

Mrs. Jones, wearing a rose suit with a gold-trimmed white rose corsage, and Mr. Jones, clad in a light gray suit with a white rose boutonniere, greeted the following out-of-town guests: Mr. and

Mr. and Mrs. J.R. Jones Sr.

Mrs. C.A. Davis and Mr. and Mrs. Bernell Crosby of Seminary; Mrs. and Mrs. Paul Askley from Nevada; Mr. and Mrs. R.V. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gerald Smith and Libby Smith of Jackson; Mr. and Mrs. Chalmer Knight of Wiggins; Mrs. Shay Henderson of New Orleans; and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Culpepper of Lucedale.

From Pascagoula, guests included Mr. and Mrs. Larry Lee, Mr. and Mrs. Doyle Germany, Mr. and Mrs. John D. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Brig Avery, Donna Munn, Mrs. C.P. Winters, April Ladmar, Louise Graham and Peggy Holman.
